SNEAK PEAK: THE ATLANTA CAMPAIGN

SEPT 17-21, 2025

LED BY ROBERT JENKINS

BASED IN MARIETTA, GA

The Atlanta Campaign (May–September 1864) was a significant military operation during the Civil War, led by Union General William Tecumseh Sherman. The campaign aimed to seize the vital Confederate city of Atlanta, Georgia, a crucial transportation and industrial hub for the South. Sherman's forces engaged in a series of battles against Confederate General Joseph E. Johnston, and later General John Bell Hood, who took command after Johnston's retreat. Through relentless flanking maneuvers, Sherman's army gradually pushed the Confederates back towards Atlanta, capturing the city in early September. The fall of Atlanta was a critical blow to the Confederacy, boosting Northern morale and helping secure President Abraham Lincoln's re-election. Sherman's success also set the stage for his infamous "March to the Sea."

Our tour of this campaign will be led by Robert Jenkins visiting Snake Creek Gap, Resaca Battlefield Historical site, Kolb's Farm, Kennesaw Mountain, Chattahoochee river defenses, site of General Johnston's firing, Battle of Atlanta sites, Ezra Church sites, Kilpatrick Raid, Battle of Jonesboro, Atlanta History Center (including the Cyclorama) and so much more! *Please note, Gary Ecelbarger was planning to lead this tour but cannot due to a family illness. He will be joining us via Zoom for a talk instead!
